DON'T ARGUE WITH A LAME BACK.

James A. Shay, of the New York "Clipper," writes as follows: "I cannot find language to express what I think of Warner's Safe Cure. For some years I suffered with kidney trouble and lame back, and could not attend to business, and at times I could hardly walk. I consulted the best doctors I could find, and spent hundreds of dollars purchasing medicine to relieve me, but could obtain no relief, and one year ago I began to take Warner's Safe Cure. I used it faithfully for three months, and improved greatly, and today consider myself among those who are strong and healthy. I regard Warner's Safe Cure as the one thing in this world needful to those suffering from kidney trouble."

CONNOLLY and WALLACE SCRANTON'S SHOPPING CENTER.

Men's Negligee Shirts The First Day of an Important Showing--An April Surprise.

Negligee Shirts afford a genuine relief from the severity of gentlemen's linen. Our great showing of "LION BRAND" garments are distinguished by a wide variety of tasteful designs, a smoothness and finish not usually found in ready-made goods. They provide an exceptional opportunity to express individuality in selection and combine a stylish appearance with comfort. Men who are hard to suit are earnestly recommended to come in and see how little they can find in this collection to criticize. Men who have decided ideas as to what a Summer Shirt should be are invited to discover how thoroughly we agree with them. There is a showing here that is representative.

In the "Novelty" Weaves—the sorts that some people call "exclusive" because they are somewhat uncommon—we show two hundred styles. Most of these are in the fine Madras Cloth combinations that are destined for strong popularity among well-dressed men this summer. Prices from one dollar to two dollars each.

We call these "Negligee" Shirts because they are principally of the soft-bosom variety, intended for hot weather comfort. But most of these new ones are as dressy as you could wish a summer garb to be. The dignified, effective, rather simple patterns, the beautiful colorings and the plentiful use of silk, achieve this result.

- At $1.00 A very remarkable Shirt of Madras to be worn with white collar. One pair of detachable cuffs to match shirt pattern. The finish and detail of this shirt will command instant attention. One hundred styles. Madras Cloths, in designs wholly new and attractive, and which are confined strictly to Connolly & Wallace—forty styles. At $2.00 Shirts of a combination of Madras and Silk, and of plain, very fine Madras—tremendously effective and exceptionally handsome. Wholly new in all details. Twenty styles. At $1.50 Shirts of Anderson's Fine Scotch
